"One of the most beneficial things about studying abroad is it helps you to adapt to a new lifestyle. I gained perspectives which increased my confidence and happiness back on campus."

Cole · London, England · Psychology

A woman in a red and white striped swimsuit is hanging from a large, curved palm tree trunk. She is smiling and has her legs spread out. The background shows a tropical beach with other palm trees, a rocky coastline, and a blue sky with white clouds. A white text box is overlaid on the right side of the image.

"I learned skills that cannot be taught in a classroom. I learned to relate with people from completely different walks of life."

Katrina · San Jose, Costa Rica · Civil Engineering

"Being in Dubai changed my perception of people – humanity really is the same though we become individuals through our culture, our nation, and our day-to-day life. I realized people are people no matter where in the world they live."

Kaija · Dubai, UAE · Hospitality and Event Management

- A photograph of the Taj Mahal in Agra, India, viewed through a large, ornate archway. The archway is made of dark wood with intricate carvings. The Taj Mahal is a large, white, domed building with multiple minarets, situated in a large, open courtyard. The sky is clear and blue. The floor of the courtyard is paved with a pattern of red and white tiles.
