Reflection 2 Assignment and Rubric

Assignment

A picture is worth a thousand words.... Please select a photo from your time abroad that represents a part of the culture that was different or similar to your own and that has a large impact on you. Tell the story of this photo and reflect on how that impact has continued or changed since coming home in 1,000 words or more.

- What photo did you choose?
- How does this photo represent a part of your host country's culture? And how did the subject of your photo have an impact on you?
- How was this culture different or similar to your own? Please describe the impact at length.
- How has this impact continued or changed since coming home?
- Does this picture look different to you now than when you took it before?
